

What is Energize Eastside?

The Energize Eastside project will build higher capacity transmission lines and a new electric substation to serve homes and businesses on the Eastside. This effort will upgrade our existing transmission system and provide more dependable power for all Eastside communities for many years to come.

New 230 kV transmission line

New 230 kV substation and transformer

Continued conservation

Dependable power for years to come