

Energize Eastside Project

- Builds approximately 18 miles of new 230 kV transmission lines from Redmond to Renton including a new substation along the route
- Supports the area's economic growth
- Route identification is occurring now
- Construction to begin in 2017

Kirkland

Renton

Bellevue

Redmond